New Bork Daily Tribune and

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 1862.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. notice can be taken of Anonymous Communic Vibriever e intended for insertion must be authenby the came and address of the writer-not necessarily los publication, but as aguaranty for his good faith.

cannot undertage to return re ected Communication business letters for this office should be addressed.
"The TRIBUNE," New-York.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

-We have highly interesting intelligence from Gen. Banks's Department. On Saturday our troops at Front Royal made an excursion five miles out on Governor's Island. They were in the last degree business in Government line; mercantile leans on the road toward Winehester, driving Ashby's ragged and forlors. Most of them are North Care- are but little changed; deposits have in-Cavalry before them. There was a continual skirmish, with some loss to the enemy, who were seen carrying off their wounded. On our side one diers captured at Front Royal were retaken. In the Arkaness River. engagement the previous day our cavalry took 150 prisoners and retook 18 of our own men. One cannon, and ten wagons laden with stores, were also phia yesterday. Her cargo consists of liquors, medsecured. Col. Kenly's wounds are not serious and he is doing well. From Harper's Ferry we learn of a reconnoissance yesterday along the road toward has call for volunteers. Winehester by the 5th New-York Cavalry. They did not find the enemy, as they had left Winchester as Tuesday afternoon. The Memphis newspapers on Saturday, pushing southward. Contrabands as- have been removed to Granada, Miss. serted that Fremont had a fight with Jackson on Sunday morning, but they did not know the result. Another and later dispatch from Front Royal reporte a reconnoissance on Sunday as far as Strasburg, through which the enemy were rapidly retreating. A force was at once sent to cut off the Rebel baggage tra'n, but their rear-guard was found to be too strong. Our men had reports from the negroes that Rosecrans had at- taining by what authority Gov. Stanley had closed tacked and beaten Jackson. These vague the schools for slaves. The bill for the collection of rumors about Fremont were soon settled taxes in the insurrectionary districts was taken up, by the receipt of dispatches from the General and sil the House amendments except one were himself dated "Headquarters, Strasburg." With the expediency of confiscating the public lands bean energy characteristic of the Pathfinder he had longing to Texas. The Tax bill was taken up and marched his strong column, with very hitle means of transportation, nearly 100 miles over mountain ridges 16, Nave 24. Mr. Saulsbury wanted to add a secof the most difficult character, and arrived near tion that none of the money raised under the bill was telegraphed to move to Banks's aid, and that Slavery will survive the Recellion. Strasburg in time to fall upon the rear of Jackson's should go for the support of fugitive slaves or free in two hours had struck his tents and marched. retreating army, which was in full force on the negroes. It was rejected-Yeas 5, Nays 34. An Unincumbered by baggage, trusting to find food Winchester road. Frement's advance brigade, Winobester road. Fremont's advance brigade, Assistant Assessors to $3 per day, was adopted. The under Col. Cluserut, first came upon the enemy, who bill was then reported to the Senate, and the members of through, he has led his force over structive:

Connection:

Connection: their artillery. Gen. Fremont rapidly brought up In the House, Mr. Allen, the new Member in Jackson declined the challenge, and, while holding color in the Indian Appropriation bill. Bills were introduced to organize a new Territorial Government, for the purpose of removing all the Indians a hundred miles, in the rear of the enemy. Col. Cluserut in check, drew off his main force and continued his retreat. Our cavalry took 25 prisoners, and had seven men wounded—none killer. The give R bert Small his freedom; making addi-have him in sight, to escape men who have the from the speeches and votes of a numeral mice, in the rear of the conservative statesmen. (The speeches and votes of the ment, for the purpose of removing all the Indians in North Carolina. So do we. As the name this morning that he looked upon the sffair of Satur-your prominent Northern Conservative statesmen. (The speeches and votes of the ment, for the purpose of removing all the Indians in North Carolina. So do we. As the name this morning that he looked upon the sffair of Satur-your prominent Northern Conservative statesmen. (The speeches and votes of the ment, for the purpose of removing all the Indians in North Carolina. So do we. As the name this morning that he looked upon the sffair of Satur-your prominent Northern Conservative statesmen. (The speeches and votes of the ment, for the purpose of removing all the Indians in North Carolina. So do we. As the name this morning that he looked upon the sffair of Satur-your prominent Northern Conservative statesmen. (The speeches and votes of the ment, for the purpose of removing all the Indians in North Carolina. So do we. As the name this morning that he looked upon the sffair of Satur-your prominent Northern Conservative statesmen. (The purpose of removing all the Indians in North Carolina. So do we. As the name that the looked upon the sffair of Satur-your prominent Northern Conservative statesmen. (The purpose of removing all the Indians in North Carolina. So do we. As the name that the looked upon the sffair of Satur-your prominent Northern Conservative statesmen. (The purpose of removing all the Indians in North Carolina and the statesmen of the statesm southward. Ashby's Cavalry, which seems to be bobby, and pummeled, and pourded, and ridicaled southward. Asby's Cavairy, which seems to be and a used the black man to his heart's content. Pieces, he will probably be run out of the covering Jackson's rear, had a taste of the saber Mr. Biddle of Pennsylvania helped Cox to the best Shenandoah Valley a great deal faster than he from a Colonel of Fremont's staff, who, with only of his ability commanded by Ashby in person. entire army is now within four miles of Richmond, soldiers who have volunteered from this city. The White House, Sunday, gives a brief account of the was laid over. fight, and a better idea of the position than we have -While Mr. Cox of Ohio was blackguarding fight which commenced so soon afterward. famy and repeated their Bull Run barbarities upon our wounded.

day was of a cheering character.

Onio Raihoad at Booneville, twenty miles below eral, as reported, "saved the army." burned the depot, locomotives, and a train of twenty-six cars loaded with supplies; destroyed also 10 000 stand of sma'l-arms, three pieces of artillery, and a great quantity of ammunition and clothing, and paroled 2,000 prisoners. Col. Elliot's command subsisted all this time upon meat only, which they seized as they went along. They broke up the deserted camp of Price and Van Dorn, where they took several hundred barrels of beef. At Booneville he found 2,500 Rebels, sick and wounded.

-Mobile papers of the 26th ult. have a dispatch from Charleston, saying that the Union fleet had ed two batteries in Stone River, and was within eight miles of Charleston. The news of the fall of that city would be bailed almost as joyfully as the capture of Richmond.

-The U. S. steamer State of Georgia and the Victoria recently captured, off Wilmington, N. C., the Robel steamer Nassau, formerly the Gordon. She was laden with arms. On the 26th, the Con federate steamer Kase was chased ashore by the Augusta, and when Com. Dupont a dispatch left the Pocaboutas was shelling the Robel.

-An order from the War Department is published to-day extending the Department of Virginia (McClellan's) so as to include all the Rappuhannock region and the country east of the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad. The same order sends Gen. Dix to Fortress Monroe and Gen. Wool to Baltimore.

-From Gen. Banks's army at Front Royal, we learn that a recommobisance was made on Friday af- vesterday.

cannon, 12 wagons, and several horses were cap-Our men also retook six members of the Maryland regiment, who were captured by the Rebels at the late battle at Front Royal. We had one man killed, and three or four slightly wounded A part of file Rebel force was the celebrated Ashby's Cavalry.

- The Memphis Appeal of the 27th has a dispatch from Vicksburg, saying that on the 26 h the Unionfleet was still below the latter city, and some firing had occurred between the gunboats and the Rebel batteries, when the boats retired, as was supposed, to

-Gen. Beauregard has not been at Richmond at all, nor have any of his troops been sent there, unless within a very few days. Gen. Halleck has received etters from Beauregard concerning prisoners nearly every day for a formight post.

ficulty. Gen. Curtis is pursuing the Rebels and cut- decline. All grades are a shade easier; sales $8,000 ting them up with is cavalry, and there is a report bbls. Bye Flour shares the decline; sales 220 bbls. Lieutenant was killed. Seven of the Maryland sol- that the Union gunboats have control of the mouth of Corn Meal steady and quiet. Wheat is in larger sup-

-The prize steamer Cambria, captured by the gunboat Huron off Charleston, arrived at Philadel-

-Ex-Senator Frank Spinola of Brooklyn, is said to be authorized to organize a new brigade under the

-Beauregard and Bragg were, at Corinth as late

-An interesting report of the operations of the Fleet under Commander Rowan, in the North Carolina waters, is given in our telegraphic columns -Gen. Sigel has been ordered to Harper's Ferry, where he will be assigned a command.

GENERAL NEWS.

-In Senate, yesterdsy, Mr. Sumner called for the instructions given to the Military Governors of Ten-Assistant Assessors to $3 per day, was adopted. The place of Mr. Logan, took his seat. Some time was spent on the Indian Appropriation bill. Bills were Strasburg, after a forced march of more than osition looking to the recognition of Hayti by send-fifteen men, charged and put to flight a squadron -An ordinance was presented by the Committee his exploits while there. on National Affairs in the Board of Aldermen vester--Dispatches from General McClellan's headquar- day, providing for the issuing of Corporation Bonds ters are up to 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His to the amount of $80,000, for the purpose of furnishtagious discuse will be admitted. The ordinance other commissioned officers whose names will be rection attempted by Gen. Salomon, but President Geffrard put down the rebellion in fewer days than found in our letter. The attacking force was we have used months for ours. Another district with stern resolve. But it was composed of "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all months for ours. Another district with stern resolve. Buchanan ought to have done here in December, 1860.

intelligence received at the War Department yester- man named Greenleaf, of the 5th New-York Cav -The 2d Iowa Cavalry, Col. Elliot, with Gen. ple and charming style two romantic rapid rides of such circumstances. twice seventeen miles which he took, first bringing Halleck, did brilliant service on the 28th ult. By word to Gen. Banks of the attack made on the outforced marches over a very difficult country, and in the teeth of the enemy, they reached the Mobile and the country and the country with he in the leaves of the start are not late enough to establish the H. We utterly deny, respected the country of the country Corinth, destroyed the track, blew op a culvert, it to perusal, and trust that the gallant youth's ser-> unteers was adopted. As there were a few slight The Council Board voted the same compliment to Gen. Prim of the Spanish-Mexican Army.

chosen Alderman by 300 majority.

and his daughter and a Miss Clara Goodwin were killed. The latter young lady was to-day to have married the brother of the former.

-The trial of F. S. Littlejohn, brother of Speaker successes of Sunday. Little john, on the indictment for bribing members of the Legislature, was called yesterday in the Albany Over and Terminer, but again postponed on account of the absence of witnesses for the prosecution.

-The 1st Regiment of New-York Fire Zonaves were mustered out of service at Governor's Island a coly as their bours, a wendern succes, its despression on ground states.

that the Spanish Government is anxious to preserve the most friendly relations with this country.

STATE OF THE MARKETS. -Socks were not seriously affected by the war operate. In some cases the highest prices of Saturday were not sustained. Governments were in good demand at full prices; and so were Railroad Bonds. State Stocks were quiet. At the Second Board the feeling was more buoyant, and a good de mand at advancing prices. The latest quotation were nearly up to those of two weaks ago. Ex change was dull-Sterling 114 a 1141. Freights were more active, and rates at first were firmer. Gold is without change. Treasury 7.30s sold largely, with improving tendency. Money is in targe supply: for demand paper 4@5 P cent are the current fig--A cargo of Rebel prisoners, per Star of the ures, but occasional business is done at 3 ? cent. The creased enearly three millions. Flour -Arkansas is being repossessed without much dif- in better supply, market 5c. lower but active at the ply, and prices 1 22c. lower, closing heavy; sales about 250,000 bush. Barley is dull at nominal prices. Outs in good demand, at better figures. Rye is in moderate request and lower; sales 3,500 bush. Corn more plenty and lower, but more active for export at the close; sales of 138,000 busb. Pork is bwer, depressed by the accumulating stock, now resching 155,000 bble. Beef quiet and steady; stock 27,000 bbls. Cut Meats and Lard inactive and heavy.

Our news this morning is of the most cheering character from every quarter. The whole the day is over we may hear that it has entered the Rebel Capital. To have that city nessee and North Carolina, with a view of ascerton. He tried fight on Saturday with only to paliate our shame. momentary success; to-day he may try flight, in which hitherto he has been unequaled.

Northward, Jackson is hard pressed by Frehold him to a terrible account if be catches mountainous and almost impassable reads, pieces, he will probably be run out of the blow to commence the revolution.') came into it, with little disposition to boos of

THE BATTLES BERORE RICH-

We have letters from two of our correspond. travesty of that position: urday. The enemy has made no further important demonstration. We have the commencement of the Dasseph's Hospital, the same to be placed under the exclusive management of the Dasseph's Hospital, the same to be placed under the exclusive management of the Saturday, but an interruption in the line beyond Wilmington leaves us without the conclusion of the Sisters of Charity. Provision is also made for paying the funeral expenses of patients from hearsay of the struggle of Saturday. Our other correspondent's letters from two of our correspond.

If we correspond the visions of the Union army pose, and will take the name of St. Joseph's Hospital, the same to be placed under the exclusive management of the Sisters of Charity. Provision is also made for paying the funeral expenses of patients from hearsay of the struggle of Saturday. Our other correspondent's letters from two of our correspond.

If we correstly understand the 'position' of our young tents with different divisions of the Union army pose, and will take the name of St. Joseph's Hospital the same to be placed under the exclusive management of the Sisters of Charity. Provision is also made for paying the funeral expenses of patients from hearsay of the struggle of Saturday. Our other correspondents are supports the present we spaint to the Union army pose, and will take the name of St. Joseph's Hospital the same to be placed under the exclusive management of the Sisters of Charity. Provision is also made for paying the funeral expenses of patients from hearsay of the struggle of Saturday. Our of the Southern people and the 'position' of our correspondent's temp and the 'position' of the Union army pose, and will take the name of St. Joseph's Hospital the position' of the Union army pose, and will take the name of St. Joseph's Hospital the position' of the Union army pose, and will take the name of St. Joseph's Hospital the position' of the Union army pose, and will take the name of St. Joseph's Hospital the position' of the South arm position' of the South a sion. Our Special Correspondent's latest letter, dated city. No person suffering from any infectious or conble rain, the thunder, the flood, but not of the

That Gen. Casey's division was surprised of do

Carolina. The General is profuse in his assurances advanced and is now within four miles of the Rebel government specially 1 of itself, as well as it FROM WASHING TON. capital. The fall of Richmond is henceforth justified our fathers in ascerting and main a question of days-perhaps of hours only. We shall be disappointed if the Stars and Bars wave defiantly over it another Sunday.

THE REBELS PRIENDS.

The Albany Argus thus speaks: "When the Rebei Congress makes its last will and dying estament it should do something handsome for Summer, Lovejoy, Oreeley, Beecher, et id owne genus; for the reason that their efforts 'in behalf of the black man' (as they cantingly phrase their idiosynerscies) have for the past six months, at least, maintained the vitality of the Rebellion!"

-The Argus is requested to state where and when the Greeley aforesaid ever-" cant falsehood and by corrupting or overawing the President Lincoln's Opinion of the Rebel Sortie. ingly" or otherwise-professed to be acting Press; and 4. Because it plunged the country him to sustain the above statement by fair citations from our columns.

Once for all, as a hundred times already, we protest against the assumption that our hostility to Slavery is impelied from any peculiar or especial regard for black men. believe that Slavery has cursed and debased enriches the North at the expense of the South, the Whites who cherish it more than the and is therefore insisted on by the North. We Blacks who are its more obvious victims.

We deny that Justice and Humanity are the special interest of any class, or clan, or protest still more strenuously against the use creed, or color. Whatever oppresses or debases one is a damage to each and all.

We hold it far better to suffer wrong than to do wrong: hence we are even more anxious monstrances against violence and terrorism as to deliver Whites than Blacks from the manifold woes of Slavery.

lendom not merely by the existence of Slavery erate expression of Southern devotion or hosof Gen. McClellan's army stood yesterday in her midst but by its extension under her tility to the Union, uninfluenced by violence where it could look into Richmond, and telore sway. Nobody in Europe justifies our direlictor terror, and that, if the result manition from principle in this regard. Absolutists fested a general desire to leave us, we point to it with exultation as a proof that would unite in calling a Convention which democracies persist in crimes which despotisms would have power to accord them a battered about their ears or to reifre, see m have forsaken, while the champions of Liberty peaceful dismissal, and with a distinct view to to be the alternative presented to Gen. Johns- hide their faces and walk backward, seeking such consummation. We believe we might self such. Slavery is everywhere abroad left in the general vertice of the Unionists, to be the weak point of the Rebellion. Yan- as was the hearing accorded to the Unionists, more and assume command thereof.

Major-Gen. John A. Dix, U. S. Vols., will proceed im agreed to. A resolution was adopted to inquire into mont, who, aided by McDowell if needed, will cey is compelled to tell Europe that the Union and that they commenced the civil war by atists are as devoted to "the peuliar institution" tacking Fort Sumter because they could not as the Confederates. Only among Northern "fire the Southern heart" with hatred to the held for sale on the 30th of June was rejected-Yeas Gen. Banks. On Sunday week Gen. Fremont being outside of the Confederacy who hopes We were as anxious to avoid war as they to following extract from a colloquy between a tain that induced them to hazard such a during and high-prisoners, and had seven men wounded—none killed. The latest dispatch from Strasburg states that Freosition looking to the recognition of Horti by sord. The latest dispatch from Stratourg states that Fremont's advance occupied that place on Sunday night mont's advance occupied that place on Sunday night mont'

-Comment were needless.

THE BASIS OF GOVERNMENT.

The National Intelligencer professes a willinguess to understand and state fairly our poaction on the great fundamental question of the which we reply: rightful Bosis of Government. Yet here is its found in our letter. The attacking force ws we have used months for ours. Another district with stern resolve. But it was composed of created equal; that they are endowed by their Creater with adversaries will give them the election by another district of Claims, who, 30,000 to 50,000 strong, led by Gen. Johnston. The having given signs of rebellion, Geffrard gave the some of the rawest regiments in the army, and certain teatment is the among these are life, liberty, other such suicidal blunder as Wright's nomi-being challenged, refused to take the oath of alle-Rebels are said to have played the white-flag in people 48 hours to return to allegiance just what so posted in the extreme advance that it was and the pursuit of happiness; that, to secure these rights, suddenly assailed by overwhelming numbers, powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any The Hartford Times contains a letter, which is while no supports were at hand. The bravest extracted into our columns to-day, from a young veterans could only have been expected to new government, laying its foundation on such principles.

waited upon by a committee and ordered to leave erable number of prisoners. We do not yet unlimited gains by smuggling to the main land, vance when they do, taining their independence.

III. We oppose the Southern Rebellion, therefore, not because we held the Union to be essentially and perpetually indissoluble, for that would contravene the right asserted by Jefferson, and condemn our fathers for dividing the British Empire. We oppose it because: I. FURTHER ADVANCE OF THE ARMY. It is a rebellion in the interest of Slavery against Liberty-of the Few against the Many; 2. Because it is the work of a faction and a caste, overbearing the popular will by conspiracy, terrorism, denunciation, and violence; 3. Because it was achieved in haste by systematic "in behalf of the black man." We challenge wantonly, recklessly into a desolating, murderous civil war, in order that the conspirators might stiffs all opposition to their sway, and fil the ear of the South with unrefuted hes.

IV. In our view, one main pillar of the Rebellion is an impression long and sedulously inculcated in the slave region that the Union protest against the assumption that the Union is specially advantageous to the North; we made of this assumption to alienate and embitter the South. And had the North met the Secession movement at the outset with re-THE TAX BILL IN THE SENATE needless and out of place, assuring the Southern people that we asked but a fair hearing, a Our country is shamed in the eyes of Chris- free, patient, brotherly discussion, and a delibthus have beaten the Disunionists on their own In Europe, the Rebel cause has many well- ground-we believe this was the true way to command thereof, and of all the United States for wishers; Slavery not one who dare avow him- beat them-nay, we believe they were beaten its self such. Slavery is everywhere abroad felt in the general verdict of the South, imperfect precipitate it, and each for good reason and -As to Northern allies of the Rebellion, the with a clear understanding of the case.

-Finally, The Intelligencer proposes to open correspondent of The Erening Post and a Rebel a new issue with us respecting the organizaofficer taken prisoner at Williamsburg is in- tion of Territorial Governments in the revolted States. We decline the encounter. We really cannot see that there is anything to contend about but the choice between two words. The Intelligencer approves the rule of Gov. Johnson in Tennessee, and of course that of Gov. Stanly four miles of the Rebel Capital. The President said

NEW-JERSEY.

" A Jerseyman" writes us that The Newark Daily Journal does not express the sentiments of New-Jersey-that it has but a small circulation, mainly confined to Newark and vicinity -that the State has sent her full quota of soldiers to the War for the Union, &c. To

1. The journal in question but gives a rather bolder expression to the general sentiment of the Democratic politicians of New-Jersey. Even " A Jerseyman" admits that the Breckinridge section of the Democracy hang that way; and, as this section comprises a majority of and dominates over the entire party, our case is made out. In no other Free State are disloval utterances so frequent and so bold as in cans of New-Jersey are too generally timid, York and the S5th and 105th Pennsylvania miserable set of worthless snimals, unfit to be recog-York and the 85th and 105th Pennsylvania lost most severely. General Palmer of New-York papers were princing the fact that the Haytian Congress opened by the fact that the Haytian Congress opened on the 21st of April, the legate of the Pope, and because whereof sixes account is given in the above products.

The Managing is the fact that the Haytian Congress opened on the 21st of April, the legate of the Pope, and because whereof sixes account is given in the above products.

The Managing is the fact that the Haytian Congress opened on the 21st of April, the legate of the Pope, and because whereof sixes account is given in the above products York is reported to be dead; Col. Bailey, on the 21st of April, the legate of the Pope, and losses—whereof some account is given in one losses—whereof som Ist New-York Artillery, killed; Col. Howes, 85th the representatives of England, France, and Spain losses—whereof some account is given in one letters—prove that portions of it, at neutal Congress and People in the Declaration trate in Gov. Olden; but their prospect of leave the city. electing another such is very poor, unless their nation. And this, they will be preity careful giance, and began abusing the crowd as a "set of not to do.

-Washington dispatches state that all the military
-Washi -Such being our fundamental principle, we mocracy with Pre-Slavery Republicanism—a and was signed by many Senators and Representa-We rejoice to believe-for though our let- certainly are not fighting against it in resisting policy that never wins, because it never ought tives praying for the promotion of Gen. Heintzleman to. They fight very shy of all Sumners and to a Major-Generalship in recognition of his gallant II. We utterly deny, repudiate, and con- Lovejoys; and the result is that they have and meritorious conduct at Williamsburg and on the connected therewith, he, in the language of the Genfact the telegraph does—that the battle demn the pretended Right of Secession. No nowhere such majorities as those which elected Conckahominy, in both of which actions, according to the telegraph does—that the battle demn the pretended Right of Secession. was fully retrieved in the subsequent strug- such right is known to our Federal Constitu- Summer and Lovejoy. Fearing to attack to the accounts so far received, the brunt of the congles, especially that of Sunday morning- tion, nor, in fact, to any civilized framework Slavery, they have surrendered their State into flict fell upon him. -In the Board of Councilmen last night the ordi- and that the desperate effort of the Rebels to of government. No such right was reserved, the hands of Slavery's tools and parasites like name appropriating $500,000 for the families of volumeers was adopted. As there were a few slight amendments, it must go back to the Aldermen. tion of our army were signally foiled. The to be made. The to be Both Boards voted to tender the hospitalities of the loss of Casey's division was variously estimated telligencer says the contrary) that a more are in New-Jersey straight-out Democrats. city to Thurlow Weed, on his arrival from Europe. by those with whom our correspondent con- majority of a community may, in disregard Hence, when articles are sent us assailing tions. In politics he is a Republican. ferred, but can hardly have exceeded 2,000; of all existing forms, upset an existing gov- Senator Ten Eyck for his half-way course, we -The charter election at Washington yesterday while Gen. McClellan's and other dispatches place. We do not believe the whole popula-mony. The Senator seems to us to be quite ernment and put one of their choice in its put them into the waste-basket without cerepassed off quietly. Mayor Wallach, unconditional unconditional assure us that the Rebel aggregate loss was place. We do not believe the whole population—we will say of Nantucket or States up to the level of his constituents and to represent the control of the Clephane, who but little more than a year ago, was far greater than ours, including a considthe city because he was a friend of John Brown, is hear definitely that the cannon captured from to break off from the Union and annex their . If the nominal Republicans of New-Jersey chosen Alderman by 300 majority.

—A painful catastrophe occurred in Wheeling yeserday morning. During a violent thunder-storm selves. We do not believe a nation is, like a speak and act as if they really believed in the loyal colored reforces there, resolutions of inthe house of John Pillsbury was struck by lightning, and his daughter and a Miss Clara Goodwin were introduced in both Houses to-day. day. If so, the residue were probably retaken, upon it. We believe the dissolution of the with Connecticut. If our most respected coor an equivalent obtained, during our decided bonds which bind together a great country a temporary, The Newark Duily Advertiser, were the Whole to the Senate to-day. Senater Simmons difficult and dalicate operation, requiring time alone to wake up and seem as earnest in the having consented to postpone the consideration of and thought to adjust the complex questions Republican cause as it formerly was in the his substitute, the first business in the Senate will The Rebels chose their time and point of rights of navigation, public debt, property, Whig, we think Newark would be a Republican be to pass upon the amendments agreed to in Comattack, and were signally favored by the flood &c., &c., necessarily involved. But, after city and the district represented in Congress by mittse; then such additional smendments as may be that temporarily separated our army. It making all proper and necessary reservations, quite another man than Nehemiah Perry. As seems to have been a last desperate effort to by Mr. Jefferson as above is sound and imdrive back our whole army, and to have been portant, and that it would justify a country as a new leaf, and work for their cause as though THE COMMAND OF THE THREE-MONTHS MES. ternoon along the Wicelesser road, and a large force — Gen. Prim visited the Navy-Yard yesterday, a most signal failure. Dispatches from Wash-extensive as and more populous than the Thirthey meant to succeed and knew they ought to. Gen. Charles S. Rabbins of Knose Island. So the enemy driven back. Seven price on Colomes were in 1776 in making a new But enough for to-day.

of Richmond.

The Whole Line Within Miles of the City.

WASHINGTON ELECTION-UNION TICKET ELECTED

Extension of the Virginia Department.

THE GALLANTRY OF GEN. HEINTZELMAN.

The Schools for Colored Fugitives in Newbern.

GOV. STANLEY'S ORDER PROHIBITING THEM.

The Recognition of Hayti and Liberia.

EXTENSION OF THE VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT,

WASHINGTON, Monday, June 2, 1862. The following general order has been issued: The Department of Virginia is extended to include that part f Virginia south of the Rappahavnock and east of the rell den Major-Gen. George B. McClellan, U. S. A., will assum is limits.

Major-Gen. John E. Wool, U. S. A , is assigned to the com mand of the Middle Department, and will proceed to Be distery to Fort Monroe and assume command at that point reporting to Major-Gen. McClellan for orders. By order of the Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, Monday, June 2, 1862. EXAGGERATED RUMORS

Washington was alive with rubors to-day. At the Capitol, in the Departments, and on the str people were sure that Richmond had been taken, with a less on our side of 25,000 and of 75,000 Rebels. That Gen. Heintzelman had been shot out of a window as ne was entering the city. That the last that was seen of Gen. Sickles he was planting the Stars and Stripes on the top of the City Hall. The real news is that our forces have advanced since the battle until now. The whole line is within GEN. FREMONT'S ATTACK ON JACKSON.

Gen. Fremont has made his app-arance ne Streeburg, and his advance guard has met and routed GEN. SIGEL.

Gen. Sigel has been ordered to Harper's Ferry where he will be assigned a command. DEATH OF MAJOR VAN VALKENBURG.

Congressman Van Valkenburg received a dispatch from the Chickahominy to-day announcing the death of his brother, who was Major of a New-York Regiment.

COL. PLLIOTT.

Cal Elliott, of the 2d Iowa Cavalry, of whose exploit in cutting the Mobile and Ohio Railroad Gen. Pope speaks so highly, has been more than once nreed for nomination as a brigadier-general by Senstor Grimes and others from the North-West, but his name has not yet been sent into the Senate.

THE COLLECTOR OF BEAUFORT. Mr. John A. Hedrick, the Collector of Beaufort N. C., has received his instructions from the Treasury accident of Gen. Wright obtaining the last central port of the city, elects Mr. Clephane Aider-The only arrest at the polls was that of R. H. Gil-paid birelings." He was released on payment of a

And the reason is just this-The Republi- Department, and has left for North Carolina. CITY ELECTION.

THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR.

The selection of C. P. Wolcott of Ohio as Assistant Secretary of war is generally commended as one enimently fit to be made. Mr. Wolcost neted as

THE BATTLE OF WILLIAMSBURG. The President answered the resolution of the Senare, calling for Gen. Hooker's report of the bat-THE INSTRUCTION OF COLORED PUGITIVES IN

The report that Military Governor Scauley had